Patient Discharge
Proposed by the physician
(discharge permitted as per regulations)
Proposed by the patient
(request for voluntary discharge)
Inform the patient
(inform about the content of discharge medical orders, post - discharge precautions, follow - up, etc.)
The physician issues discharge medical orders and completes relevant discharge medical records and medical certificates
(completed the day before discharge in regular cases)
The patient signs a risk notification letter
(the patient and family members need to sign the risk notification letter for voluntary discharge)
Nurse completes tasks
(notify the patient of discharge, notify the pharmacy to prepare and dispense medicine, provide discharge health education guidance, notify the medical records office to copy medical records, etc.)
Inform the patient and their family members
(inform the patient to bring the outpatient medical record, prepayment receipt, medical insurance card, cash, and relevant identity documents to handle discharge procedures, etc.)
Go to the Inpatient Billing Office
(handle discharge procedures)
Discharge